

Following Jesus into Confrontations

Mark 2:18-28
Pastor Rodney Woo

1. Following Jesus transforms our fasting into feasting (Mark 2:18-22)
 - a. The religion of fasting (2:18)
 - b. The relationship of feasting (2:19-22)
 - i. The joy of the wedding (2:19-20)
 - ii. The joy of new life (2:21)
 - iii. Joy of new wine (2:22)
2. Following Jesus realigns our Sabbath to the Lord of the Sabbath (2:23-28)
 - a. Activity on the Sabbath (2:23-24)
 - i. Followers in need (2:23)
 - ii. Pharisees in judgement (2:24)
 - b. Alignment of the Sabbath (2:25-28)
 - i. Look back at King David (2:25-26)
 - ii. Look at the sabbath (2:27)
 - iii. Look at the Lord of the Sabbath (3:28)

Discussion Questions

1. If you've received new life in Christ (new wine), what is one old wine skin that you'd need to discard? What is one possible new wine skin that needs to be added?
2. As you sense God realigning you into His narrative, which of your traditions need to be realigned with truth? Which outward performance need to be realigned toward God's purpose?

Notes

Digital Connect Card
for 1st-time guests

ibcs.org/new

Digital Notes
& Weekly Updates

ibcs.org/thisweek

Tithes
& Offerings

PayNow/PayLah
UEN S73SS0007A