

Divine Summons to Bless

Numbers 23–24
Pastor Rodney Woo

1. God's blessings cannot be stopped
 - a. God initiates His blessing with Israel (Gen 12:2–3, Num 6:24–26)
 - b. Multiple attempts to interrupt God's blessing with Israel (Num 23–24)
 - i. First attempt (23:1–6)
 - ii. Second attempt (23:13–17)
 - iii. Third attempt (23:27–30)
 - c. The inevitability of God's blessings (23:8,19–20)
 - i. God is unchangeable (23:19)
 - ii. God's blessings are unchangeable (23:8,20)
2. God's blessings freely flow
 - a. The foundation of God's blessing
 - i. His presence (23:21)
 - ii. His power (23:23–24; 24:8–9)
 - a. The flow of God's blessings
 - i. Uniqueness of people of Israel (23:9)
 - ii. Fulfillment of promise to Israel (23:9–10; 24:5–7)
 1. Abundance in count (23:9–10)
 2. Abundance in care (24:5–6)
 - b. The overflow of blessings yet to come (24:16–19)
 - i. Rising star (24:17)
 - ii. Ruling scepter (24:17)
3. The Divine summons requires a response
 - a. Common traits
 - b. Contrasting trust

Discussion Questions

1. What are the two biggest blessings in your life?
2. Think of someone you can bless today. How will you bless this person?
3. As the year slowly comes to a close, what blessing would you like to ask from God?

Notes

Digital Connect Card
for 1st-time guests

ibcs.org/new

Digital Notes
& Weekly Updates

ibcs.org/thisweek

Tithes
& Offerings

PayNow/PayLah
UEN S73SS0007A